

Word of the Day – Tacit

Transcript

Hi Everyone. Today's word of the day is "tacit". It's an adjective and it can be used to describe something that is accepted or understood without overt or explicit agreement. So without anything being said it's agreed upon.

We can use the word "tacit" in pairs like tacit agreement, tacit support, or tacit compliance.

Here's an example. "My Aunt's son had turned 35 years old and when they started discussing his next career move they tacitly agreed that he should also consider marriage soon."
