Transcript

The word of the day today is Pristine. Pristine is an adjective. This is used to describe something that is in excellent condition or like-new condition. You could also use this word to describe a friend's laptop. For instance, let's say you both laptop at the New Year. This is something you take to school every day and there's usually some wear and tear with the daily commute. A year has passed and you are noticing that her laptop looks markedly different from yours. You could say,

“Even after a year, I was surprised by how pristine her laptop was. Even after a day, my laptop has a few scratches and marks. And using it every day now for a year now, it really is impressive how pristine she has kept it.”
