Word of the Day – Glutton

Transcript

Hi. The word of the day today is glutton. Glutton is a noun. This is not a positive word. Generally you could use this in jest, to make fun of someone, or to describe someone who has excessive habits usually in the context of eating and drinking. So if you were to poke fun at someone who is a friend and he or she does not contain themselves when they go out to eat, you can say,

“We all know she becomes a glutton when we go out to eat at a buffet.”

When you use this word, it’s used to describe someone who has no moderation when they eat or drink. Another sentence you could use in your day to day could be,

“Moderation is not in his vocabulary. Even the bartender knows he is a glutton when it comes to beer.”

I hope you find this word useful in expressing your thoughts more clearly. For more information you can find the script at Practicus.co.kr.
